MARYLAND POLITICS.

Meeting in Prince George's County.

The democrats of Prince George's county held a convention at Marlboro' on the 1st inst. Gen. Thos. F. Bowie presided, and Richard Peach was secretary.

On motion of Thomas E. Williams, Esq., the following gentlemen were nominated and unanimously elected delegates to represent Prince George's county in the State convention to be held in Baltimore on the 8th inst., with authority to cast the three votes to which the county is entitled in said convention: Col. John D. Bowling, C. C Magruder, Esq., Col. Wm. D Bowie, Charles B. Calvert, Esq., Gen. Thomas F. Bowie, and R. B. B Chew, Esq.

The following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That the democratic and conservative citizens of this county will cordially unite with all and every other political organization whose principles and objects are to sustain the policy of Andrew Johnson in restoring the States lately engaged in civil war to all their rights of representation in Congress, and we will cheerfully unite with all other organizations who are opposed to the radical and destructive measures which have characterized the present Congress of the United States, whose only object seems to be to subvert the rights and liberties of the people, and establish on the ruins of the Constitution an irresponsible, unrestrained, and licentious oligarchy.

Resolved. That having entire confidence in the integrity and patriotism of the delegates nominated to the State Convention to be held in Baltimore on the 8th instant, we feel indisposed to pass any resolutions which might be construed into instructions as to their action in said convention, but prefer to leave them free and untrammeled to pursue such course as they may deem proper.
